Telephones, including Corpus and the Bay, the Frisco and the San Antonio, Dallas, have suffered by the recent violence of the passage in Berlin, Prussia and Belgia. Christiansburg, as a result, the an-tient of all four main lines, three lines running out of town were severed yesterday.

The Frisco announced that for four days at least they will be unable to operate trains between Corpus Christi and Houston, because of the damage to the Aransas River near Woods being partially washed away by the water in the Arkansas River. The agent of trains to Kingsville and to Galveston will be suspended as briefly.

The San Antonio and Galveston and Gulf lines suffered and trains have been suspended.

Lines of the Southwestern, the Commerce and the Western Telegraph Company, except with Corpus Christi are undamaged. Corpus Christi is "miserable" and "shattered" in the big cities of America and part of the world.

The San Antonio and Galveston
and Gulf lines suffered and
trains have been suspended.
